- ❖ Malé South
- ❖ Malé North
- ❖ Vaavu
- ❖ Vattaru
- ❖ Meemu
- ❖ Vanurah Vali Kandu
- ❖ Thaa Olughiri Kandu
- ❖ Laamu
- ❖ Fushi Kandu
- ❖ Maabahidoo Kandu
- ❖ Huvadho
- ❖ Fuvahmulah
- ❖ Addu Atoll

➤ Highlights:

- Marine Protect Area of Guraidhoo
- Manta cleaning station
- Sharks; nurse sharks, grey sharks, white tips, whale sharks, Tiger Sharks, Hammerhead Sharks and Thresher Sharks.
- Eagle rays
- World War British Wreck, the British Royalty

The route
10 ATOLLS
+2 HEMISPHERES
is an epic journey

Malé North

The check dive will be done in this Atoll, close to the arrival point of our guests.

This atoll has some incredible dactive during West monsoon; Nassimo Thila ive spots, as well: Lankan Paradise is a Manta cleaning station

Banana Reef are colourful and much alive dive spots. Lately, we had special encounters with pelagic fish at Hulhumale wall.

Malé South

Kuda Giri and Kandooma Thila are the highlights of this atoll.

Kandooma Thila is inside the Marine Protect Area of Guraidhoo, full of life as Eagle Ray, Grey Reef Shark, White, Tip Shark, Tuna and huge Green Turtles.

This underwater mountain is well known to be a cleaning station for Grey Reef Shark.

Vaavu

Myaru Kandou and Devana Kandou are the most famous channel dives in this atoll.

Alimatha Jetty: this night dive is world famous for the presence of Nurse Sharks.

Fotteyo Kandou: This shallow channel is famous for the outside wall, full of yellow soft coral pending from many different caves. Fushi Kandou and Golden Wall are two more worth exploring dive spots of this area.

Vattaru

This is a very small atoll where we are going to make a dive, when the current meet our expectations.

Meemu Vanurah Vali Kandu

Is a peculiar channel with a double edge that gives the chance to divers to cross the full channel and push all the sharks in one corner; we call this kind of procedure “shark sandwich”.

In this atoll we will dive at Kureli Manta Point: this is the one of the two manta points of our journey, so it's a MUST!

Thaa Olughiri Kandu

is a big but very shallow channel, easy to explore entirely.

Dyamigili Corner: a long reef full of turtles and white tip sharks.

Kalufalha Island: In the evening we put a big light at the stern of the boat to attract plankton, the favourite food of our special gentle giant, the Whale Shark.

Laamu Fushi Kandu and Maabahidoo Kandu

two famous channel dives around the same island, north and south side of Maabahidoo.

Eagle Rays in formation, Silver Tip Sharks, Dogtooth Tuna, Jack Fish in big schools and Red Snappers: the perfect end for a perfect trip.

Huvadhoo

There is the famous dive spots of Kooddo and Viligili Kandu, where walls of Gray Reef Sharks are waiting to be encountered.

Close to the island of Gemana Fushi, another hotspot for big schools of hammerhead sharks. There is an amazing dive spot called Mareha Kandu that has a large and elegant school of eagle rays and hundred green turtles. It is home to a big

Fovhamulah

if the ocean conditions are good, we can cross to the ultimate Maldivian dive destination:

Fovhamulah. This atoll is made by only one island in the middle of the Indian Ocean.

Here, thanks to the oceanic current, we have great chances to meet Tiger Sharks, Hammerhead Sharks and Thresher Sharks.

It is not uncommon to meet Oceanic Mantas Rays and Whale Sharks, too! Southern than Huvadhu,

Addu

The itinerary ends in the southern atoll of Addu Atoll, between January and April, it is possible to meet Reef Manta Rays getting a SPA treatment at one of the cleaning stations.

On the west side of this atoll is famous for the presence of II World War British Wreck, the British Royalty, which is a must in this area.
